

And now here is my secret, a very simple secret

I must recognize that sometimes my soul was empty of the grace of God.

Internet, newspapers, all of them talking about war, violence and people dying. And on my mind there was just one thought, "What's God doing", what's God doing with all that violence? what's God doing with the war? what's God doing with all that poor kids?

Yesterday I found the answers in a newspaper. The back cover said, "We are looking for volunteers to help people in Siria". And in that moment I understood that we were created by God for helping others. As you know God is inside all of us and if we have faith, he'll give us the powers to create a better and peaceful world.
